LOS ANGELES VIRTUOSI ORCHESTRA[®]

2016/2017 SEASON

LET THE MUSIC MOVE YOU!

LAV: GIVING 100% TO MUSIC EDUCATION

The Los Angeles Virtuosi Orchestra's mission is to serve as a catalyst in reaffirming, advocating and supporting music education in schools and in the community.

The ensemble was formed on the core belief that an orchestra is a unique educational resource and has created a new paradigm of giving, allocating 100% net revenue from subscription performances to advance music education.

LAV implements its outreach in collaborative partnerships with the community, schools, agencies and other arts organizations, and puts into action activities designed to advance student learning, development and creativity.

DEAR MUSIC LOVERS,

The creation of an orchestra dedicated to the support of music education has been a lifelong dream, and I am thrilled to share with you the musical wonders of the Los Angeles Virtuosi Orchestra's second season at the Théâtre Raymond Kabbaz as its' orchestra-in- residence, as well as an exciting mid-season performance at LACMA's Bing Theater as part of its' Sundays Live concert series

Reflecting its mission to serve as a catalyst in reaffirming, advocating and supporting music education in schools and in the community, the Los Angeles Virtuosi Orchestra will allocate 100% net profit from all subscription concerts at the Théâtre Raymond Kabbaz towards the advancement and support of music education programs in its partner schools, including the Lycée Français of Los Angeles.

Support the Los Angeles Virtuosi Orchestra and help us build and secure a world in which every young person has access to music education!
